Thank you to all who came out to our Welcome Back Week events! If you weren't able to make it to the Newman Top Chef event, here are some of the dishes the students came up with.

This evening, we will begin our catechesis series on Genesis with "God, the Creator of Man." Next Sunday, January 21, Dr. Jason Fugikawa, from the Diocese of Oklahoma City, will be joining us to speak about Man being made in the Imago Dei (the Image of God). All catechesis classes take place at 6:45p, after Sunday night dinner, in the cafeteria. All are welcome!

Tuesday at 7p we will be having a pro-life workshop at Newman. We will be highlighting the sanctity of human life and how to respectfully speak to others on the topic. Jeremy Priest will be joining us for the evening. If you are interested in going on the pilgrimage or a mission trip, this workshop will be worth two credits toward your stipend.

The Tulsa March for Life will be held today, January 14, at 1p. The march will begin in front of Holy Family Cathedral and go through downtown. The keynote address will be given by Abby Johnson, former director of Planned Parenthood. If you are interested in going, dress for the weather and meet in the lobby after brunch. We will carpool from Newman to the Cathedral.

We gather strong
In heart and song

With hopes that death will go away! ”
