

Women's Group Spring Retreat

Saturday, April 20 – 9a-1p

Ladies, come for a spiritual getaway without even leaving campus. Great speakers, Mass, faith, and fellowship will all be included, with more details to be announced. Don't miss it.

Fireside with Tara Elpers

Thursday, April 18 - 7p

Wondering what your call is in life? Wondering how to figure out what your call is? Vocation discernment is the topic for this month's casual evening talk designed to deepen understanding about Catholic topics. We'll gather on the patio if the weather is nice.

face2Face

Tuesday, April 16 - 8-9p

Need an opportunity to step away from the secular world and spend time talking with Jesus? Come one and all. face2Face is Eucharistic adoration with praise and worship music to add another form of prayer to the liturgy. Come and go as your schedule permits. Reconciliation will be available, too.

SEEK Reunion

Tuesday, April 16 - 6p

Did you travel to Orlando for SEEK during Winter Break? If so, come reminisce with your fellow travelers! Start the evening being spiritually fed at 5:15 Mass, then head out to the patio for dinner and fellowship.

Peer Ministry Applications

Consider Serving Your Fellow Students

Ever get the feeling that God is calling you to do something to serve your friends and fellow students? Want to be an active disciple on campus next year, in ways both visible and invisible? Consider applying for the Peer Ministry Team! Get the application online at www.tu-newman.org

Catholic Olympics

Saturday, April 27 - 10:30a carpool

Physical athleticism combines with intellectual prowess to make the first annual Catholic Olympics showdown. We'll be going head-to-head against students from OSU, OU, and surrounding colleges. Sign up on the lobby table to join our dream team of 10 Cathletes. The event goes from 12p to 5p in Stillwater at the St. John Newman Center.

Do Good Wednesday

Wednesday, May 1 - 12:40 carpool

Come give back to the community during Reading Days. We'll sort goods at the Community Food Bank of Eastern Oklahoma.

Annual Newman Film Festival

Thursday, May 2 - 7p

Coming soon to an activities center near you...the annual Newman Film Festival! All students are invited to make fun, witty, dramatic, funny, or inspiring films to whatever extent they can imagine. Start thinking of ideas!

End of Year Banquet

Saturday May 4, 6p

Save the date for the tremendously awesome End of Year Banquet! Good food, good conversation, paper plate awards, and of course, the entire school year's memories in a photo slideshow. Stay tuned for a Facebook event but definitely block out your Saturday evening for this.

Confession Initiative

Get your sins scrubbed out by Jesus

Tulsa's Confession Initiative continues until Pentecost and provides ample opportunities to experience firsthand God's amazing love and forgiveness. Fun fact: the Initiative was recently featured on the popular Catholic blog What Does The Prayer Really Say? Read it at <http://wdtprs.com/blog/2013/03/just-too-cool-billboards-for-confession-promoted-by-which-bishop/>

"Our Catholic Faith should not be a blind unreasoning thing, but something based on a firm foundation of reasoning." -BCCp236

Who Are Patron Saints?

First of all, then, I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity. This is good and pleasing to God our savior, who wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth (1 Timothy, 2: 1-4)

Patron saints are special advocates who pray with us and for us; their prayers have particular effect because of their closeness to God in Heaven. Saints may be patrons of specific things, such as people, places, occupations, character traits, situations, or events, to list a few, and many saints have multiple patronages.
