April 21 – 27

Drillers Baseball

Friday, April 26th - 6p carpool

Mark your calendar for some all-American fun. Free tickets and free dinner, all in a private box overlooking ONEOK Field, for 40 people. Plus, the evening will wrap up with the Drillers' famous Friday Fireworks after the game. Sign up on the back table.

Catholic Olympics

Saturday, April 27 - 10:30a carpool

Physical athleticism combines with intellectual prowess to make the first annual Catholic Olympics showdown. We'll be going head-to-head against students from OSU, OU, and surrounding colleges. Sign up on the lobby table to join our dream team of 10 Cathletes. The event goes from 12p to 5p in Stillwater at the St. John Newman Center.

Purgatory: For Heaven's Sake

Thursday, April 25 - 6p

Fr. Sean Donovan, a local expert on eschatology (the study of "the last four things: death, judgement, heaven, and hell"), will visit Newman on Thursday to talk about purgatory. There will be a light dinner with the talk. Come to learn about the teachings of purgatory yourself, and bring a friend who might not know about purgatory at all.

Newman 2-bedroom apartment

Great opportunity for the ladies

Did you know there's an apartment on the second floor of Newman? Not only is it there, it's also in need of female tenants for next school year. Check the back table for details.

Peer Ministry Applications

Consider serving your fellow students

Ever get the feeling that God is calling you to do something to serve your friends and fellow students? Consider applying for the Peer Ministry Team! Visit www.tu-newman.org for the application, which is due April 26th.

Annual Newman Film Festival

Thursday, May 2 – 7p

Coming soon to the Mayo SAC..the annual Newman Film Festival! All students are invited to make fun, witty, dramatic, funny, or inspiring films to whatever extent they can imagine. Start thinking of ideas! Post your films to YouTube and email the link to film-fest@utulsa.edu

Do Good Wednesday

Wednesday, May 1 - 12:40p carpool

For our last volunteer event of the school year, we will head over to the Food Bank to sort and package food! This last event is on a Dead Day so there's no excuse not to come. Meet at Newman and come ready to have some fun while also serving others.

End of Year Banquet

Saturday, May 4 - 6p

Save the date for the tremendously awesome End of Year Banquet! Good food, good conversation, paper plate awards, and, of course, the entire school year's memories in a photo slideshow. Stay tuned for a Facebook event but definitely block out your Saturday evening for this.

Finals Cookout

Thursday, May 9

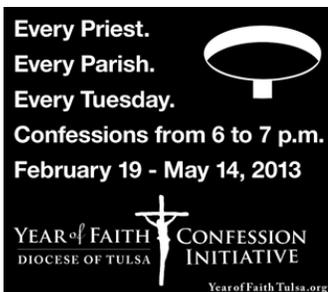

Finals on the last day aren't exactly fun, but chilling on the new patio, eating, and getting one more chance to hang out with friends before heading off on summer adventures - now, that's fun. More details to come.

Confession Initiative

Get your sins scrubbed out by Jesus

Tulsa's Confession Initiative continues until Pentecost and provides ample opportunities to experience firsthand God's amazing love and forgiveness. Fun fact: the Initiative was recently featured on the popular Catholic blog What Does The Prayer Really Say? Read it at <http://wdtprs.com/blog/2013/03/just-too-cool-billboards-for-confession-promoted-by-which-bishop/>

Are you a BA (blind apostle)?

May: The Month of the Blessed Virgin Mary

More info coming next week about why May is specially devoted to Our Blessed Mother.

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.

Amen.
