

Sunday Catechesis

Resumes this week with Lectio Divina

Sunday catechesis comes back from hiatus this week with a two-week series on the practice of Lectio Divina, a method of reading, prayer, and meditation designed to bring you closer to God. Up after Lectio: a six-week series on Salvation History.

Sex, Love, or Both?

Wednesday, February 19 - 12n

Relationships, flirting, and all things confusing about the opposite sex are just a few of the things college students have to deal with on a regular basis. During February (named Sexual Health Awareness Month by the HHS) come learn about how to navigate them. Subway will be provided for lunch.

Trivia Night

Friday, February 21 - 7p

Alumni are coming back to Newman to take on us current students in a head-to-head trivia night showdown, so make sure to be here and show them the current generation's smarts. RSVP to tu-newman@utulsa.edu and invite family and friends.

Extension Day

Help Newman win!

Our video is live and we need your help to win! There are just three simple steps to help propel Newman's video toward the goal of winning and having Pope Francis watch our video. First, like Catholic Extension on Facebook. Second, follow this link: <http://goo.gl/rDqaDc>. Third, share the post on your Facebook page and encourage people to vote. It's just that simple!

Spaghettifest Sign-Ups

Saturday, March 1 - 5:30-8p

Our annual Spaghettifest fundraiser is coming up and we need lots of volunteers to make the evening as smooth and fun as possible. Check the chalkboard for sign-up sheets; we need cooks, servers, speakers at various Masses around town, and more. Questions? Talk to Brenten McCulloch.

Clear Creek Work Day

Saturday, March 1 - 6a carpool

Want to get your hands dirty and join hundreds of people in accomplishing three years' worth of work in one day? Come to the Clear Creek Abbey Workday! Our carpool is super early but it's well worth it; also, we hear there'll be doughnuts when we leave plus breakfast and lunch are provided. Questions? Talk to Joe Meier. Ready to sign up? Email him or check out the chalkboard at Newman.

All School Day of Prayer

Tuesday, February 28 - Newman shifts 11a-2p at Sharp Chapel

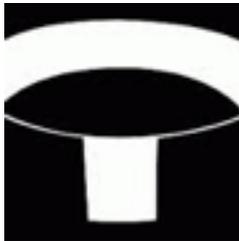

Campus ministries from many different denominations and faith outlooks will join together at the end of this month for an All School Day of Prayer at Sharp Chapel. Newman is responsible for covering shifts from 11a to 2p. Each shift is half an hour long and we need at least two people for each time slot, so check the sign up sheet on the chalkboard to volunteer.

Vocations Dinner

Tuesday, February 25 - 5:45p carpool

Men: invest an evening in fellowship and discernment with your fellow college-aged guys and a couple of priests: Father Kerry and Father Richard Bradley. Dinner's included. Check out the chalkboard for more information and to sign up.

Relay for Life

April 11-12 but never too early to sign up

Help us help the American Cancer Society to get one step closer to a world with less cancer and more birthdays and where no more lives are lost to the disease. To register go to www.relayforlife.org/utok and click to join the TU Catholic Newman Center team or write your name on the sign up sheet on the chalk board. It is a $10 donation to join. Questions? Talk to Marcia Jolly.

IM Softball Sign Ups

Sign Ups close February 17

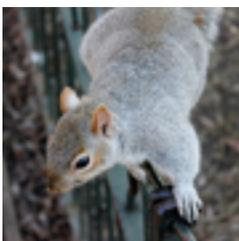

Intramural Softball starts soon, so if you want to play for the Newman team, sign up on the chalkboard. For more information, talk to Kerry Hundall.

Lassoing Squirrels

Saturday, February 22 - 7p

Those pesky campus squirrels are always running about wanting food and darting in front of hapless pedestrians. Come practice your rope skills and do the campus a service by helping us round 'em up. BYOL: bring your own lasso.

Pope Shares Birthday Breakfast with Boy Band One Direction

VATICAN—Five members of the English-Irish pop boy band One Direction helped Pope Francis celebrate his 77th birthday at the Vatican Tuesday. The teen heartthrobs, consisting of Niall Horan (the cute one), Zayn Malik (the quiet and mysterious one), Liam Payne (the sensible one), Harry Styles (the charming one), and Louis Tomlinson (the funny one), were invited by a Vatican official to attend the morning Mass which Francis celebrates daily at the hotel where he lives on Vatican City grounds, the Vatican said. One of the members of One Direction Niall Horan held his $14,000 Cavalier King Charles Spaniel as he was presented to Francis while the guests chatted following Mass. The Vatican also said Francis invited his household help to join him in what became a “discotech-like” atmosphere, and he spoke of them one by one during his homily. Francis, who is making history as one of the more informal and down-to-earth popes in recent times, struck a modest note as he reflected about people’s roles in the world. “Indeed, the Lord has given us all a role to play...but you are playing, perhaps, the most useless possible role in the history of mankind,” he said in his homily. “Seriously, look at you guys. Wait...are you even guys?” Francis went on to say that boy bands “should not even be a thing.” “Honestly, I was kind of confused when I met them,” Francis said in an exclusive interview with EOTT. “I mean, have you seen these guys? At first I thought they were members of the Curia.”
